2012 Red Mountain Four Flags Cabernet Sauvignon Classic cabernet scents lead in this Red Mountain red—violets, sage, a whiff of cedar—all of it so beguiling you'll just want to hover over the glass for several minutes. But the flavors are just as impressive, not for their power and their weight, but for their movement as well. The wine feels monumental, and yet it has the lift and kinetic energy to make it a thrill to taste. Decant it and serve with leg of lamb.
