

DeLILLE CELLARS

DeLille Cellars 2004 Harrison Hill

The 2004 Harrison Hill is a darker and denser version than normal, with cracked black pepper, Bordeaux-style herbs, and classic black cherries in the nose.

There is also a gravelly minerality that adds to the complexity. In the mouth this wine is “classic” Harrison Hill with black cherries, leather, red plums and vanilla oak tones.

Because of great concentration, wonderful structure and lengthy finish, this wine will give enjoyment for a long time.

92 Points

“In the mouth it has a pleasing granularity, warmed by soft, sweet fruit, and it sits on its mid-palate flavors for a long, long time.”
