

2015 2015 Harrison Hill is a remarkable offering from this VINTAGE venerable Snipes Mountain vineyard, showcasing abundant aromas of dried cranberries and maraschino cherries. Admirers of Harrison’s more old-world aspects will find a generous bouquet of red cassis, sandalwood and graphite with a breath of dried tarragon. Inviting and pure on the palate, this incredibly elegant structure, balance and refined tannin promise decades of enjoyment.

WINE ADVOCATE JUNE 2018
 “The 2015 Harrison Hill is superb, wafting from the glass with notes of cassis, cherries, black tea, sweet cocoa nib and subtle pencil shavings. On the palate, it’s full-bodied, velvety and layered, with superb depth and dimension, its tannins abundant but beautifully pixelated and its finish tangy and lingering. I’d expect this absolutely superb Bordeaux blend to see out its 30th birthday in style, but plan on cellaring it for 4 or 5 years at the bare minimum to allow it to realize all its considerable potential.”
